EVENSONG

The crown jewel of Anglican liturgical heritage, an act of worship encompassing centuries of musical creativity, Evensong is offered between September and May on Sundays at 4:00 P.M. with the Cathedral Choir or Cathedral Schola.

On the following Sundays we will welcome these visiting Choirs:

SUNDAY, 23 NOVEMBER 4:00 PM
Choir of Church of the Epiphany
Atlanta

SUNDAY, 25 JANUARY 4:00 PM
The Candler Singers
Emory University, Atlanta

SUNDAY, 3 MAY 4:00 PM
The Choir of St. Bartholomew's
Episcopal Church, Atlanta

Dean's Welcome

Grace to you, and Peace, in Jesus Christ our Lord! On behalf of the people of this parish, I welcome you to the sacred space of this Cathedral.

We hope that the Cathedral of St. Philip is a place of prayer for all people. We also acknowledge that prayer occurs for different people in different ways. One of the glories of this holy place is that it has witnessed such depth and breadth of prayer. We hope, too, that you will help us continue the tradition.

There can be no doubt that music offered at the Cathedral of St. Philip is part of humanity's prayer. Often, the language of music speaks in transcendent ways that words alone could not articulate. It is a joy, therefore, to welcome music to this place.

Not just a setting for music, the Cathedral of St. Philip is also a holy instrument in itself. I pray that the music and voices offered here will find fresh and inspired expression. I pray that God will be present to all. May God bless this Cathedral Concert Series.

Blessings,

The Very Reverend Samuel G. Candler
Dean of the Cathedral

Music Department

William Fred Scott, Acting Director of Music
David Fishburn, Associate Organist/Choirmaster
Brent Runnels, Cathedral Concerts Manager
Timothy Gunter, Coordinator for Music
