This Sunday, the Cathedral Observes the Feast of the Presentation!

The feast day has gone by many different names, but the Christian Church has long observed the holy character of February 2, roughly forty days after Christmas. Tradition says that the holy family of Jesus presented the child to the Temple, for the first time, forty days after his birth (around 40 days after December 25).

According to the Gospel of Luke, there were prophets in the temple waiting for the child. Old Simeon broke out in song, "Lord now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, for these eyes of mine have seen the savior!" Old Anna, a widow, joined him in praise.

Since then, many traditions have grown. Candles have come to be used in Christian churches for this event, especially in the western world when winter is at its deepest this time of year. So, the popular name, Candlemas, has also been given to this feast.

It is a glorious feast, coming as it does in the middle of winter, but also as we wonder at the growth of the savior. The Lucan passage describing the event says that, "The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him" (Luke 2:40). At the Feast of the Presentation, we marvel at the growth of all children!

So, join us this Sunday at the Cathedral of St. Philip, when we will observe this feast! From 7:45 to 8:45 to 11:15 to 4:00, the Cathedral will be observing the Feast of the Presentation.

We hope that many of us are ready now to present ourselves to God in the "temple," the glorious cathedral. We will present ourselves, we will present our children, and we will present love and hope during this sensitive and cautious time.

We will light candles, too! We will be welcoming light in the world, and we will be presenting ourselves in the temple of God! Saint Paul, too, talked about presentation; he said, "I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship" (Romans 12:1).

(Of course, our worship will be online, too; in fact, we have been livestreaming our services for over five years now, way before the pandemic started. Our online community is part of our Cathedral community. Thank you for joining us!)
